REPORT FOR DEBENHAM ANUAL PARISH COUNCIL MEETING – 23/05/2011.

Reported Crimes.

There have been 33 crimes reported in the Parish of Debenham during the past year, these are categorised as follows.

Criminal Damage.	16
Burglary.	2
Theft.	13
Distraction Burglary.	1

As detailed below thefts in Gardeners Road is one of our current priorities.

Security of Outbuildings.

Between March 29 and April 28, 29 outbuildings, 11 of which were left unlocked or open were targeted across Mid Suffolk.

Garages, Sheds and workshops across the district were broken into with items such as lawn mowers, bicycles, tools and electrical equipment stolen.

Our advise is never to leave items of value unattended in gardens or on display in outbuildings. Mesh or bars can be fixed to windows and UV pens or SmartWater can be used to mark items. Ensure that buildings are locked and bicycles and ladders are locked up, and smaller items kept out of sight.

Vehicles should be secured in garages or parked in open well-lit areas. Take pictures of valuable items or register them on the National database "Immobilise."

Telephone Scams.

Suffolk Trading Standards are warning people to be on their guard after reports of unsolicited telephone calls regarding loft insulation and computer problems.
